Following an explanation of the proposal by David Hayes on behalf of the applicant and questions from cllrs, it was resolved to:

Raise no objection/neutral view - provided that the use of the new building be restricted. It is a new building so the opportunity to do so, uninhibited by the authorised use of the existing building, now presents itself. The suggested restrictions are:

- (ii) No letting out for holiday purposes by persons outside the family

There being no other business the Chairman closed the meeting at 8.05pm.
